25X1

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- 25X1 1. In June 1952, purchase of a one-way train ticket from Giurgiu to Bacau was not questioned. During the trip via Bucharest, Ploesti and Focsani, no document or any other check was made in the trains or in the stations at any time.
2. The purchaser of a return ticket from Bacau to Giurgiu was questioned as to whether the traveler possessed the necessary papers for travel in the frontier zone of Giurgiu. During the trip, control was directed specifically against a certain individual who had committed an offense. Two policemen checked identity cards, but principally those of the male passengers.
3. There is no control over travel in the interior of the country; only in the frontier zones. To enter one of these zones, if one is not an inhabitant, a special paper issued by the militia is necessary. However, if one is an inhabitant of a frontier zone, he may travel anywhere inside the country and return to the frontier zone without difficulty.
